Dear Quilter(s),

Mississippi Cultural Crossroads is preparing for its 25th Annual Pieces and Strings quilt show and contest. We are celebrating 25 years of having this show and contest in Port Gibson and would love for your beautiful work to be a part of it. Hopefully, this will be our biggest show ever. Your participation can make this happen.

This year's show will be kicked off on March 29th with an awards ceremony at 11:00 AM in our quilt gallery at 507 Market St. All quilts entered into the contest will hang in our gallery through April 26th. The winning quilts will be on exhibit in the Mississippi Museum of Art in Jackson, May through August.

We are awaiting confirmation of our judges for this year's show, and will let you know as soon as we can.

Quilting categories include:

- Improvisation—creative improvisation
- String, Strip, Scrap—creative use of bits & pieces
- Traditional Patterns—tight geometrical symmetry featuring close stitches
- Crib, Wall, Table, & Small Pieces
- Narrative Quilts
- Appliqué
- Collaborations with children
- Heirloom Quilt Collaborations—top made by a previous generation and quilted in the last three years.
- Machine Quilted Quilts
- Art Quilts

Please find more information attached and an entry form. Contact us at 601-437-8905 / 601-529-9974 with questions. You can also email us at mcc@ms culturalcrossroads.org. We look forward to your participation.

Sincere thanks,

Tara Y. Wren
